

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1681

LOT 1681

A Caughley Temple pattern blue printed barrel shaped tea canister and cover, 1780s, of fluted form, underglaze blue mark to base, height 11cm, together with two pieces of Caughley printed in the Fisherman pattern, comprising a large pickle leaf dish, length 16.8cm, and a sucrier and cover, height 11cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1681. Caddy - small chip to rim, and chip to rim of cover.

Bowl and cover - good condition.

Leaf dish - few minor rim chips/nicks, otherwise ok.

Created: Tue, 27th February 2024 11:53