

Glassware / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1819

LOT 1819

A mixed group of clear cut and/or moulded glassware, mostly 19th century, including a pair of pillar and diamond trellis cut pear shaped jugs, height 20cm, with a matching carafe, height 26.5cm, two honeycomb moulded jugs, height of tallest 29cm, a pair of decanters with engraved trellis pattern, height 18.5cm, four pineapple or ham stands, a Kuttrolf decanter and stopper and a large water jug (minor faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Created: Tue, 27th February 2024 13:08