

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1628

LOT 1628

A Moorcroft Furzey Hill pattern vase, circa 1997, designed by Rachel Bishop, impressed and painted marks to base, height 30.5cm (hairline crack to rim), boxed, together with three other pieces of Moorcroft pottery, comprising a Butterfly pattern clock, circa 1993, height 15.5cm, a Plevriana circular bowl, diameter 11.5cm (two small chips to footrim), and an Anemone ashtray, length 10.7cm, with two boxes.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1628. Noticeable scratch to interior of rim, near a small hairline crack to the rim.

Clock - a couple of nicks/scratches to glass, otherwise ok.

Other pieces with minor scuffing.

Created: Tue, 27th February 2024 12:21