

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 29th February 2024 / Lot 1439

LOT 1439

A set of thirteen pistol shaped porcelain knife hafts, late 18th/19th century, of tapered hexagonal shape, decorated with opposing interlaced 'L's' formed from floral garlands, above low relief moulded 'C' scroll, trellis and foliate moulding, length 9.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Each in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. No restoration.
One has a minor chip to the top end rim edge where the blade would sit once fitted.
No signs of wear to the enamelling.
Some minor typical firing cracks as a result of manufacture - nothing untoward.

Created: Wed, 28th February 2024 10:34