

Clocks and Barometers / Thursday, 7th March 2024 / Lot 1244

LOT 1244

A late 19th/early 20th century French lacquered brass cased carriage alarm clock with eight day movement striking and repeating on a gong, the white enameled dial with black Roman hour numerals and subsidiary alarm dial and detailed 'Luis E. Sinn Co Valparaiso-Santiago', the corniche case with swing handle and bevelled glass panels, on bracket feet, height 17.7cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1244. Please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. The movement winds and adjust smoothly and is currently running, strike mechanism and repeat working but may need some minor adjustment (i.e. striking the right amount). Dial in good condition with only few typical minor marks. Case is a little worn, lacquered finish has some pitting, discolouration and wear. All glass panels in good order. Back door hinge and handle good,

Created: Thu, 29th February 2024 16:44