LOT 1045

A Victorian 18ct gold cased keywind open-faced gentleman's pocket watch, the unsigned gilt movement numbered '63367', the enamelled gilt dial with applied Roman hour numerals, the case back with engraved garter within engine turned surround, Chester 1858, total weight 48.3g, case diameter 3.8cm, with leather case, together with a gold faceted twin circular link Albert watch chain, fitted with a swivel, weight 35.7g, and three watch keys.

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

1045. The watch is in generally good clean condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches, couple of tiny dents to case back and only minor wear to case. Dial in good clean condition. Hinges to front and back are good. Replacement plastic glass. Movement is accessed from the front so gold inner case is integral not a gilt metal cover.

Total weight of watch excluding the plastic glass is 47.1g.

The movement only ticks for a few seconds before stopping.

The gold chain is in generally good order with typical light surface scratches and wear. No apparent damage or repairs. It is not marked but tests as 9ct gold.

Turquoise set winding key is missing one turquoise stone, otherwise ok. Banded agate set winding key in generally good order. Both with typical surface scratches and wear.
