LOT 1245

A late 19th/early 20th century lacquered brass carriage clock, the eight day movement striking hours and half hours and repeating on a gong, the circular white enameled dial with black Arabic hour numerals, within an engine turned gilt surround, the glazed case with swing handle, on bracket feet, height 18.5cm, with winding key.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1245. Clock in generally good condition with only typical minor surface scratches and wear to case. Tiny chip to corner of one glass side panel (not obvious). Movement winds and adjust smoothly, striking and repeat mechanism also working, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. Dial in good clean condition, only a very minor shallow chip to edge of centre hole.
