

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 21st March 2024 / Lot 2545

LOT 2545

A 19th century scrimshaw whalebone walking cane, the shaft carved with an upper section of architectural spiral reeded pillars, the square capitals with mother-of-pearl and baleen inlaid decoration, the lower section with spiral reeding, the marine ivory pommel carved in the form of a Turk's head knot, length approx 89cm (repair to pineapple effect collar).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2545. The pineapple effect section has a 'U' shaped repaired crack running around 5cm of its length. Otherwise, a tiny chip to one of the mother-of-pearl panels.

Created: Wed, 13th March 2024 11:16