LOT 2668

A pair of impressive 20th century terracotta-tinted composition stone garden urns and covers, each lid with a pineapple finial above an ovoid twin-handled two-section body, ornamented with palmettes and vine leaves, raised on stepped square bases, height 171cm, width 70cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

2668. Overall weathering to surface, a few minor losses to edges of leaves, but generally in good condition. The finials appear to have been re-attached but possibly done at point of manufacture. Come in sections - separate lids, two section bodies which split below the garland, separate plinths.
