

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 11th April 2024 / Lot 1020

LOT 1020

A Chinese famille rose enamelled porcelain four-tier stacking box and cover, late Qing dynasty, of cylindrical form with slightly domed circular cover, each section enamelled with a formal design of scrolling lotus and tendrils, bats and gilt shou characters on differently coloured grounds of blue, yellow and pink, flanked by twisted metal drop handles, the cover with similarly decorated famille rose design on a turquoise ground, printed iron red seal mark to bases, total height 30cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1020, Overall good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Colours are bright and vibrant. Only very minor typical light surface wear and scratches.

Cover in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Dark blue tier - small firing crack to rim, otherwise good condition.

Pale blue tier - very minor shallow chip to rim, otherwise good condition.

Pink tier - two very minor shallow chips to inside of rim, otherwise good condition.

Yellow tier - good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 8th April 2024 14:58