

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 17th April 2024 / Lot 333

LOT 333

A James Dixon & Sons plate mounted oak three-bottle tantalus of rectangular form with carrying handle, the front opening to reveal three square cut glass decanters and stoppers, length 44.5cm, with a key (some faults to decanters).

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

333. The oak frame is in generally good condition. Typical scuffs, nicks and wear, but no significant damage. Plate is won. Both hinged front doors open well and lock tightly. Bit dusty and dirty, would benefit from a clean.

One decanter with cracked and chipped neck/rim.

One stopper end badly chipped.

Centre decanter is a later match, but in good condition.

Created: Fri, 12th April 2024 15:00