

Coins, Banknotes and Medallions / Wednesday, 17th April 2024 / Lot 43

LOT 43

A Bank of England white five pounds note, Chief Cashier L.K. O'Brien, London, August 29th 1956, serial number 'D80A 022065', together with a collection of other British and world banknotes.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

43. English notes show circulation wear and minor folds, though some do look almost uncirculated. The large white five pounds note has some soiling and two vertical fold or crease lines. The world notes within this lot are more heavily circulated and soiled.

Created: Mon, 15th April 2024 16:04