

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wednesday, 15th May 2024 / Lot 136

LOT 136

Bradbury, Agnew & Co. (publisher) – 'National Service, Who Follows?', early 20th century lithograph in colours, sheet size 51cm x 31.5cm, together with four other First World War recruiting posters.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

136. Horizontal page fold (as published), on the left edge of this fold is an edge tear of approx 4mm. Water stain upper right approx 17cm vertical from upper right corner and 6cm at widest point. All four corners with 'dog-ear' folds and several mostly minor edge tears from top edge, the worst approx 3cm long. Edge tear lower left below the text 'of Services', approx 1cm. Edge tear from right edge horizontal with the first line of red text, approx 4mm.

Created: Wed, 8th May 2024 11:27