

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tuesday, 14th May 2024 / Lot 4045

LOT 4045

A mid to late 19th century 28 bore double-barrelled percussion sporting gun by Williams & Powell with side-by-side barrels, barrel length 76cm, the central rib engraved 'Williams & Powell, 25 South Castle Street, Liverpool', foliate-engraved locks, dolphin hammers and steel furniture, full-stocked in figured walnut with chequered foregrip and brass-tipped wood ramrod.

Estimate: £450 - £550

Condition Report

4045. Overall gun is very clean, old lacquer in places to metalwork, evidence of light rust to locks, old heavy rust to trigger guard, deeper pitting.

Pull length 18cm.

Unable to supply condition for the internal parts of the barrels.

Created: Wed, 8th May 2024 16:56