

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tuesday, 14th May 2024 / Lot 4011

LOT 4011

A George III period 1796 pattern officer's dress sword with straight single-edged blade, blade length 82cm, with engraved and gilt decoration and detailed with Royal arms and military trophies, gilt brass clam-form part-folding guard, wire-bound grip and faceted pommel, with an associated bullion-embroidered knot (blade with overall light patchy rust, chips to blade edge).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

4011. Edge damage to blade, small nicks and chips. Overall active rust to blade, blued and gilt work below this in places. Guard folds, no evidence of damage here. Binding to grip is falling apart at points. Gilt loss to handle. Knot is failing apart and thread bare in places.

Created: Thu, 9th May 2024 11:01