

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 15th May 2024 / Lot 389

LOT 389

A Victorian silver baluster pepper caster with engraved decoration and beaded rims, London 1865 by Chawner & Co, height 10.4cm, and a pair of silver napkin rings, total weight 94.1g, together with a Victorian electrotype plated tankard, decorated in relief with two riflemen within a laurel wreath against a continuous battle scene ground, with a naturalistic handle, height 14.5cm, and a small group of other plated items, including a pair of café-au-lait pots and matching sugar bowl.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

389. Silver pepper - good condition. Good clear hallmarks.

Electrotype tankard - generally good condition. Couple of dents to footrim. Typical wear to plate. Some discolouration to interior.

Cafe-au-lait set and bowl - good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear.

Tray - good condition. Typical surface scratches and wear.

2 silver napkin rings - both with dents, scratches and wear.

Created: Thu, 9th May 2024 12:40