

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 15th May 2024 / Lot 301

LOT 301

A Victorian silver cylindrical mustard with domed hinged lid and pierced thumbpiece, flanked by a foliate scroll handle, on an outswept circular base, with overall foliate engraved decoration, monogram engraved, London 1877 by Henry Holland, height 8.5cm, and a silver mustard spoon, London 1867 by Chawner & Co, total weight 160g.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

301. Mustard is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and minor wear. Engraved monogram to front. Good clear hallmarks. Blue glass liner in good condition and fits well. Hinge is slightly wobbly, but otherwise good and sits flat. Pot sits flat. Mustard spoon in good condition. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Mon, 13th May 2024 13:03