LOT 2140

A Regency mahogany concertina-action extending dining table, in the manner of Wilkinson of Moorfields, London, the top with two fall flaps and three extra leaves, raised on ring turned legs and castors, height 73cm, extended length 305cm, depth 122cm (faults).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2410 - The whole top is in need of stripping down and re-polishing, as it currently has a scratched and marked French polish. When the table is fully extended it is structurally sound. The legs appear to be nicely finished and are in good order. There are a few table clips missing but these can be easily replaced.
