Condition Report

2020 - General condition and stability is good, having had some overall minor repairs throughout the set. One of the standards has had a replaced front leg which is a slightly different colour. One standard has a thin crack to one rear leg. One of the small roundels on the back of one chair is missing. One of the corners appears to be a very good later copy made for the set, probably circa 1900 but quite difficult to tell.
