

Jewellery / Wednesday, 15th May 2024 / Lot 505

LOT 505

A Victorian shell, diamond and pearl brooch, the shell mounted with a rose cut diamond set snake motif and a single pearl, unmarked, width 3.2cm (pearl untested).

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

Pin fitting working well, if not a little loose where secured to shell.

The shell appears to be in good condition, no obvious damage.

The diamonds are not of great quality, they look to be secure within their settings at present.

Will benefit from a clean.

We have not described the pin sitting as gold, it may be but this is untested.

Created: Tue, 14th May 2024 09:56