

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1701

LOT 1701

A Royal Worcester ivory glazed basket, dated 1885, the basketweave moulded body with overhead handle and gilt highlights, green printed factory mark with numerals '992', height 17cm, together with an Adderley's part dessert service, decorated with pink roses and blue ribbons, comprising four plates and two dishes, and four pieces of Royal Copenhagen, painted with blue flower bouquets, oval dish 34cm long.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

Worcester basket - minor rubbing to gilt, otherwise in fairly good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration.
Copenhagen pieces - minor scratching but otherwise pieces in fairly good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration.

Adderley's dessert service:

Square and oval dishes - both with noticeable dirt filled scratches, with some rubbing/losses to decoration.
One plate with slight staining to interior, otherwise plates generally with small areas of rubbing/losses to decoration

Overall some minor rubbing to gilt, but no chips, cracks or restoration.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 10:53