

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1490

LOT 1490

An Art Deco Shelley Turkish Blue Blocks pattern part service, designed by Eric Slater, Eve shape, comprising teapot and cover, milk jug, sugar bowl, eight cups and six saucers, six square tea plates and bread and butter plate, diameter 24.5cm, green printed factory marks to bases with red painted pattern No. U11788 (two teacups with small nick).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

Two teacups - small nick to top rim

Teacups overall - three or four with very minor nibbles to paint decoration, particularly on handles

Milk jug - a couple of tiny nibbles to the black on handle/rim

Sugar bowl - small star crack to interior near the base

Six saucers - one or two with tiniest of nibbles to blue rim decoration, otherwise all saucers with some light scratching

Three tea plates - tiniest of nibbles to black rims, otherwise all tea plates with some light scratching

Bread and butter plate - minimal wear

Teapot - some small losses to decoration on rim of spout and widest rim edge decoration

Overall no signs of crazing or restoration.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 11:11