

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1496

LOT 1496

Three Herend Mille Fleurs pattern items, 20th century, comprising teapot and cover, height 11cm, jug and two-handled sugar bowl and cover, each painted with scattered flowers beneath a basketweave moulded border, blue printed, impressed and incised marks to bases (faults)

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Tiny chip and a couple of nicks to yellow flower finial of sugar bowl.

Milk jug with some minor wear to the gilt rim.

Teapot - missing one 'lug' to underside of cover which would normally hold the cover in place on the teapot, 2 small chips to pink flower finial of teapot cover.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 11:14