

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1512

LOT 1512

A Royal Worcester part tea service, dated 1907, decorated with vertical rows of cornflowers within gilt edged pale green glazed relief moulded borders, puce printed marks to bases, red painted pattern No. W5240, diameter of saucers 13.8cm (faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Milk jug - hairline crack to interior near base, small glazing fault to body below spout

Two cups - cracked

Two cups - with crazing

One saucer - cracked

Other saucers - some with slight rubbing to the decoration, particular to the green centres

Sucrier - horizontal hairline crack on one side, dirt stained, overall crazing

Teapot - hairline crack to body near base, some chipping to glaze along this crack, overall crazing

All other pieces in fairly good condition, with some minor wear.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 13:43