

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1626

LOT 1626

A Newlyn Troika pottery marmalade pot, circa 1970-74, decorated by Honor Curtis, monogrammed, with textured pattern and panels against a blue ground, black painted marks to base, height 9cm, together with a Troika square plate, decorated by Lousie Jinks, monogrammed, with blue panelled design to the rim against a white glazed ground, black painted marks to base, 19cm square (minor nicks).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

Pot - in generally good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration

Plate - two small nicks to rim on one side, otherwise ok.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 13:44