

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1628

LOT 1628

A St. Ives Troika pottery mug, circa 1964-70, blue glazed with a band of vertical lines to the rim against a white glazed ground, blue printed mark to base, height 12.3cm, together with a white glazed mug with a band of circles, decorated by Marilyn (Murphy) Pascoe, monogrammed, black painted marks to base, height 11.2cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Blue glazed mug - in generally good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration

White glazed mug - some very minor crazing, slightly more noticeable on interior, tiny glaze nick to handle, otherwise ok.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 13:46