

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1629

LOT 1629

A Newlyn Troika pottery urn vase, 1973-79, decorated by Avril Bennett, monogrammed, with a pale blue band of ochre circular motifs against a buff textured ground, black painted marks to base, height 25cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

In generally good condition.

There are a few tiny imperfections to the coloured border, on very close inspection they appear as small white specks/nicks within the decoration. It is uncertain if these are a result of manufacture or have occurred since.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 13:53