

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1632

LOT 1632

A Czechoslovakian Vienna style part service, early 20th century, printed with classical figure panels within gilt overlaid magenta borders heightened with enamelled and gilt dots, comprising a two-handled circular tray, diameter including handles 28cm, eleven cups, twelve saucers and twelve tea plates, diameter 16cm (some wear).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

One cup - large chip to base

Two cups - hairline crack to rim

One cup - restoration to rim, discoloured, obvious

Three cups - tiny nick to base edge

One tea plate - scratched through figural design

One tea plate - with large flat chip to rim

Circular tray - a couple of scratches and losses to the central design, some wear to the gilding and rim

Other pieces in fairly good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration.

Overall, some signs of wear/rubbing, particularly to handles and saucers/plates.

Created: Mon, 20th May 2024 15:58