

Glassware / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1884

LOT 1884

A Bohemian or French glass goblet, mid to late 19th century, the mottled white body cased in clear, the stem entwined with a gilt decorated blue snake, the rim edges with gilt detail, height 20.4cm, a pair of craquelure ice glass goblets with red snakes entwined to the stems, height 19cm, a similar example with green snake and a large group of mostly craquelure ice glass goblets and beakers, some with gilt detail, together with four ice glass water jugs and a water jug and decanter and stopper with ice compartments. Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Primarily the lot is in good condition overall with no significant damage and no repairs.

The four snake goblets have no damage or repairs - the red and green snakes have extensive wear to their gilt details.

The jug and decanter and stopper with ice compartments are both in good condition.

The majority of the glass has some kind of gilt detail which is worn overall to varying degrees.

Created: Tue, 21st May 2024 15:39