LOT 1822

A large mixed group of craquelure ice glassware, mostly early 20th century, in a variety of colours, including a flared amethyst tint vase with scalloped rim, height 26cm, a pale amber baluster vase with horizontal enamelled line decoration in red and black, height 18cm, a large amethyst tint jug of rounded square shape, height 24cm, a harlequin coloured set of three decanters and stoppers, a pair of olive and amethyst tint vases of globular shape with extended cylindrical necks, height 25.5cm, a similar smaller pair, height 14cm, various jugs and vases (minor faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Fundamentally the lot is in good condition overall with no significant damage or repairs. Each of the olive/amethyst tinted vases has small chips/nicks to the top rim edge. Otherwise, apart from some small nicks, the items are in generally good order.
