

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1401

LOT 1401

A Royal Dux equestrian figure group, early 20th century, modelled as a young peasant boy seated astride a shire horse, decorated in shot enamels, applied pink triangle to base with impressed numerals '1693', height 35cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

In good condition overall, no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 28th May 2024 14:41