

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1691

LOT 1691

A Caughley Temple pattern blue printed barrel shaped tea canister and cover, 1780s, of fluted form, underglaze blue mark to base, height 11cm, together with two pieces of Caughley printed in the Fisherman pattern, comprising a large pickle leaf dish, length 16.8cm, and a sucrier and cover, height 11cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Caddy - small chip to rim, and chip to rim of cover.

Bowl and cover - good condition.

Leaf dish - few minor rim chips/nicks, otherwise ok.

Created: Wed, 29th May 2024 08:54