

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1502

LOT 1502

A Bow porcelain frill vase and matched cover, circa 1765, of flared shape with pierced rim, applied in high relief with flowers and buds on painted stems, flanking relief cherub faces and painted insects, the domed cover with a floral arrangement finial, unmarked, height 23cm (restored).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Heavily and extensively (poorly) restored overall.

Created: Wed, 29th May 2024 09:18