

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1524

LOT 1524

A Herend Chinese Bouquet pattern green colourway part service, made for Candida Tupini, Roma, 20th century, comprising circular tureen and cover with lemon finial, oval platter length 47cm, circular platter, diameter 33cm, twenty dinner plates 25.5cm diameter, one dessert plate 24.8cm diameter, three plates 21cm diameter, eight plates 18.8cm diameter, seven two-handled soup bowls and stands, pair of single-handled leaf shaped dishes and two-handled double-ended sauceboat with integral stand, blue printed and impressed marks to bases, together with a Herend floral encrusted leaf shaped box and cover, painted with leaves, and a pair of Herend style circular bowls.

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

21cm plate - one has large crack to rim.

Tureen - the small relief flowers on the tureen base each have small chips.

Leaf box and cover - the relief flowers on the cover each have small chips/nicks.

Otherwise all the items in the lot are in good condition overall with strong gilding and enamels which display minimal wear.

There are some negligible knife cuts and minor stacking wear. Nothing untoward.

Created: Wed, 29th May 2024 10:10