

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1710

LOT 1710

A Dutch delft Peacock pattern plate by De Porceleyne Claeuw, 18th century, painted in blue within an ochre rim, blue painted marks to base, diameter 23.3cm, a similar Dutch delft plate, painted in Chinese style with a vase of flowers to the centre, diameter 23cm, and a polychrome painted delft plate with central flowering rockwork, the rim with red flowers, diameter 22.3cm (faults and restoration). Provenance: from the private collection of David Armitage, former conservator to the Department of Eastern Art at the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, between 1970 and 1999.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

Peacock plate - a large approx one third section broken away and professionally restored back into position.

Vase of flowers plate - 8cm long by 2.5cm wide section of rim broken away and visibly glued back into position, next to this is an approx 10cm long haircrack. A lot of fritting to rim.

Polychrome plate - 2 faint starcracks to well, extensive chipped fritting to rim.

Created: Wed, 29th May 2024 11:04