

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 30th May 2024 / Lot 1441

LOT 1441

A Royal Albert Moss Rose pattern part service, including two tureens and one cover, two graduated oval dishes, two sauceboats and stands, twelve dinner plates, fourteen dessert plates, twelve tea plates, a coffee pot and cover, a teapot and cover, coffee cups and saucers, teacups and saucers, two-handled soup bowls and stands, dessert bowls and a serving bowl (factory seconds).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

As catalogued - the service is a factory seconds.

One tureen has a vertical crack to the rim and is missing its cover.

One coffee cup has a tiny nick to the rim.

Two of the two handled soup bowls are crazed.

One sauceboat stand has a chip to the rim edge.

One soup bowl is badly cracked.

The largest circular platter has a crack to the rim edge.

The service has definitely been used as there are apparent knife cuts and some light rubbing to the gilding on closer inspection. But generally it is in good order with minimal wear.

Created: Wed, 29th May 2024 14:25