LOT 2554

Emile Louis Picault - 'Arbaletrier' and 'Porte Etendard', a pair of late 19th century brown patinated cast bronze figures of Renaissance soldiers, one holding a flag, the other a crossbow, bearing cast signatures, titled bases and foundry marks to bases, height 42cm and 38cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

2554. Apart from the break to the handle of the crossbow (this can be seen in the images on our website, specifically image 9), the overall condition is generally quite good with only some minor surface wear to high points. Even though the colour on the break looks strange, under magnification it is just gilt bronze and does not have an old repair or any other repair residue.
