

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 12th June 2024 / Lot 370

LOT 370

A late Victorian Aesthetic movement silver four-piece tea-for-two set and pair of Royal Crown Derby teacups and saucers, the tea set comprising teapot, milk jug, sugar bowl and pair of sugar tongs, each engraved with birds and flowers, crest and monogram, London 1881 and Sheffield 1881 (sugar tongs) by Martin, Hall & Co, total weight 801g, height of teapot 12.5cm, the pair of Royal Crown Derby cups and saucers with similar gilt and silvered decoration, iron red printed marks to bases, all within a fitted leather case, height 42.5cm (missing two teaspoons).

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

370. All pieces of silver in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Good crisp engraving. Good clear hallmarks. All with engraved monogram to one side and crest to the other.

Missing teaspoons

Both cups and saucers in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Gilt and silvered decoration in good order. Only very minor surface scratches and wear. Porcelain rings well when tapped.

Case is a little tired with some splits, scuffs and wear. One clasp missing.

Created: Sat, 8th June 2024 10:02