

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 12th June 2024 / Lot 375

LOT 375

An early 19th century Russian silver gilt and niello beaker, 84 zolotnik, of slightly tapered cylindrical form, finely decorated with three oval figural panels supported by swags and divided by urns and baskets on an engraved ground, Moscow 1804, assay master Ivan Vilayov, weight 166.8g, height 9.6cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

375. The beaker is in really good condition commensurate with age. No significant damage, no repairs and no dents, only typical minor surface wear. Good crisp engraving and distinct niello work. Good clear marks to base.

Created: Mon, 10th June 2024 11:39