LOT 1105

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and cover, Yongzheng period, of ovoid form, finely painted with a mythical scene of a maiden riding a deer above waves, the reverse with a maiden carrying a flower basket above waves, divided by vapours, beneath pink cell diaper borders, height 11.2cm, bearing 'Roy Davids Collection' paper label (chip to spout and crack to handle). Provenance: the Roy Davids Collection.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

1105. Lovely quality teapot with no significant damage or repairs. Small chip to tip of spout and crack across the centre of the handle. Some minor enamel/paint loss to pink band around top of teapot and typical light surface scratches and wear to glaze and enamels. Decoration is high quality, bright and vibrant.
