

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 10th July 2024 / Lot 352

LOT 352

An early Victorian silver cylindrical mustard with hinged lid and pierced thumbpiece above pierced scroll sides, London 1838, height 7.5cm, fitted with a green glass liner, and a silver hexagonal mustard with engraved hinged lid above pierced foliate sides, London 1841, height 7.3cm, both by Charles Reily & George Storer, together with two silver Fiddle pattern mustard spoons, London 1834 and Dublin (date rubbed), total weight excluding liner 323.7g.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

352. Cylindrical mustard - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Piercing is good, hinge is good and lid closes tightly. Good clear hallmarks. Green glass liner fits well and in good order. Sits nice and flat.

Hexagonal mustard - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear to sides. Hinge is good and lid with typical wear to engraving, with more pronounced wear to central crest, closes tightly. Good clear marks. Glass liner fits well and in good order. Sits nice and flat.

Both spoons in generally good condition, one with rubbed marks.

Created: Fri, 5th July 2024 13:21