

Coins, Banknotes and Medallions / Wednesday, 17th July 2024 / Lot 3143

LOT 3143

A Charles I cast and chased silver royalist badge by Thomas Rawlins, obverse with bust of Charles facing right with fine lace collar, reverse with bust of Henrietta Maria facing left with hair up, fine drapery and pearl necklace, signed 'T. Rawlins' below, suspension loops to top and bottom and ball-shaped markers to sides, Eimer 167b, height 45mm, width 44mm, weight 14.2g (extremely fine with old cabinet tone, some underlying lustre), with an old ink-written collector's ticket.

Provenance: the collection of the late Robert Pearce of Normanton Hall, Normanton-on-Trent, Nottinghamshire.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

Condition Report

3143. Good/very fine, may have been cleaned in the past but probably decades ago. Now with cabinet toned patina. Wear to high points, mainly on hair and beard area of portrait.

Created: Wed, 10th July 2024 13:38