

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 7th August 2024 / Lot 314

LOT 314

A set of six mid-18th century silver fancy back teaspoons, each initial engraved 'CIM', London, no date letter, by Thomas & William Chawner, length 11.5cm, a set of six late Victorian silver fancy back coffee spoons and matching pair of sugar tongs, London 1890 and 1891 by John Aldwinckle & Thomas Slater, cased, total weight 133.7g, and a set of twelve Continental .800 silver gilt teaspoons, each with hoof terminal and spiral twisted handle, weight 115.8g, cased.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

314. The six Georgian spoons have a few dents and wear to the bowls, but otherwise the rest are in generally good order.

Created: Fri, 2nd August 2024 13:18