

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 7th August 2024 / Lot 350

LOT 350

A George II Scottish silver cream boat and matching circular sugar bowl, crest engraved with a fish beneath a motto 'Expecto Meliora', each with floral and foliate engraved rim, above stylized fleur-de-lis shouldered scroll legs terminating in paw feet, Edinburgh 1746 by Robert Low, with Hugh Gordon Assay Masters mark, total weight 435.5g, length of cream boat 17.3cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

350. The cream boat has all three feet pushed in leaving the usual impressions to the interior. The sugar similarly has had the feet pushed in. one particularly badly. Otherwise in generally good order with some minor surface wear and scratches.

Created: Fri, 2nd August 2024 14:14