

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 7th August 2024 / Lot 368

LOT 368

A George III silver mounted cut glass tea caddy, circa 1770, the flattened oval body with overall diamond faceted flat cut and horizontal line decoration, above a star cut foot, the collar holding a faceted stopper, with engraved silver cover, height 13.3cm (unmarked).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

368. Some very tiny nicks to the bottom edge of the caddy and a few corners of the stopper. The silver cover is a little worn and has a few small dents to the outer edges.

Created: Fri, 2nd August 2024 15:29