LOT 42

Renold or Reginold Elstrack – King Richard III, 17th century engraving with etching, 17cm x 11cm, within an ebonized wood frame, together with nine 17th and 18th century portrait engravings by different hands, including three examples by Paulus Pontius after Anthony van Dyck from the 'Iconographie' series.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

42. All appear to have been cleaned and restored with a few old creases flattened. Some subsequent age toning to a couple, but overall very presentable.

Modern mounts and frames in good condition.

None of these prints have been examined out of their frames.
