LOT 1611

A Macintyre Moorcroft Florian Ware vase, circa 1900-02, decorated in the Tulip pattern with yellow, green and blue flowers against a blue ground, brown printed factory mark to base with green painted signature, height 24cm (minor faults to foot).

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

Approx 0.5cm long flat nick to outside edge of foot, please see image 4 on our website. In addition there is a curved firing crack to the outside edge of the foot, please see image 6 on our website.

The glaze of the foot otherwise has some manufacturing blemishes, please see image 5 on our website.

Apart from this the vase is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are some very minor and indistinct surface scratches to the glaze, nothing untoward and only noticeable on close inspection.
