

Glassware / Thursday, 22nd August 2024 / Lot 1845

LOT 1845

A set of twelve Moser style cranberry flashed and cut hock wine glasses, the rounded bowls with oval facet cutting above clear hexagonal stems and feet, height 21cm, together with a pair of cranberry flashed and cut decanters and stoppers, of conical shape, height 40cm, and another similar pair of decanters with one stopper. Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

None of these are marked Moser.

The glasses are in good condition overall with no repairs or significant damage - there are a few teeny tiny nibbles to some of the feet but these are only noticeable on VERY close inspection.

The pair of decanters and stoppers are in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

The other pair of decanters are missing one stopper, the stopper that does remain has chipping to its tip and one of these decanters has a small pinhead sized bruise to its base edge, only noticeable when inspected closely.

Created: Tue, 13th August 2024 10:44