

Glassware / Thursday, 22nd August 2024 / Lot 1925

LOT 1925

An engraved claret jug, late 19th century, the pear shaped body with a wide band of flowers and foliate scrollwork beneath the faceted neck, on a star cut circular foot, height 32cm, a claret jug and stopper, engraved with fruiting vine, height 31.5cm, another cut glass jug, height 31cm, a pair of water carafes and glasses with simple engraved and etched banded decoration, height of carafes 20cm, and a jug engraved with hops and barley, height 16cm. Provenance: the first jug purchased from Brian Watson Antique Glass.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

The cut glass jug of yellowish tint with stem and circular foot, cut with panels of oval hobnails and stylised leaves, has 2 chips to the underside edge of the foot.

Otherwise the items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage or repairs, apart from some minor and light scratches to the carafes and glasses - nothing terrible.

Created: Thu, 15th August 2024 10:42