LOT 1890

An Art Deco white metal mounted glass cocktail set, comprising a shaker jug with strainer and handle, six small conical shaped glasses, 13.5cm high, and four shot glasses, each engraved with fruiting vine against a vertical line background, together with a pale blue cut glass Art Deco decanter and stopper and six matching shot glasses, and other similar Art Deco style and mid-20th century glassware, including decanters and stoppers and glasses (minor faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

The white metal mounted shaker jug has a very minor dent to the side edge of the strainer cover and the metal mount is peeling slightly around the top edge of the jug where the cover slots into position. Otherwise this set is in good condition.

The remaining items in the lot are overall in good order with minimal damage and no repairs.

For example, one of the pair of clear decanters and stoppers has a small chip to the top rim edge and the other has a large chip to its stopper.

The peach coloured decanter and stopper has minor chipping to the end of the stopper and some small nicks to the top rim edge of the decanter.

The cut blue decanter and stopper with six matching shot glasses has a chipped stopper.

The pair of green and gilt banded shot glasses both have chips to the rims.
